

It has been said that the last words of a man are usually the most important. The above verse contains the last words of our Lord Jesus Christ on earth, and I consider them very important. We spend a great deal of our time trying to obey this verse. Three of these photos are on the street ministries. Our students are quick to get into a one-on-one witness and some have been won by this one-on-one witnessing. "One beggar telling another beggar where the bread is."

If you have not already seen this or you would like to watch it again the following link will make it possible for you to watch our choir here in PI singing "Ye shall be witnesses."

I sang this song in choir in Bob Gray's church in 1969...WOW!!! I loved it then and I love it now.

In one photo one of our SS kids shows us "the proper" way to wear the mask...Ha Ha. We have not had any trouble through all this Covid stuff. We lost some ministries but have revived some of these. Several missionaries and national pastors have had quite a bit of trouble. A friend of mine was visited by the local authorities and told to close his church.

He, very nicely, said, "I will NOT close the church. God commanded us to meet together. If you think it is necessary to close the church...You close it." They drove away. PTL.

The last photo is an oldie-goldie from about twenty-four years ago. Directly behind the street sign "Broadway" is the Empire State building in NYC.

Robin and I are in really good health and we are soooooo thankful that our life is filled with ministry. We are happy, having just celebrated our 33rd anniversary.

We would love to hear back from you either by phone 850-208-3773 (we are 13 hours AHEAD of NYC time, or by email gsutek@streetpreaching.com

Have a very Merry Christian Christmas and a Happy New Year.
